

A EXERCISE • 實戰演練

Question: Do you eat out a lot? Talk about some of your experience.

In the busy modern life, you get used to going out and eating all the time. I think that kind of trend has followed in my life, because eating out is so cheap, it's really delicious, it's quick, it's efficient.

Sometimes I eat out three meals a day. I would have a bagel and a coffee in the morning on the go, have a salad or a box lunch for lunch, and have a slice of pizza for dinner. The outside food may not be as healthy as the home-cooked food, but it's really convenient.
