

Speaking Test 35

A EXERCISE • 實戰演練*Topic: The Night Market

Night markets have been a big part of the culture in Taiwan. Visiting a night market should be on your to-do list because, in Taiwan, the best nightlife is found in food markets.

The Shilin Night Market is one of the largest and most famous night markets in Taipei. It's about a 5-minute walk from MRT Jiantan Station, very easy to get to. This night market can give you an idea of the looks and the tastes of many typical Taiwanese night market snack foods: bubble tea, fried buns, and the traditional Taiwanese treat, stinky tofu. Once you're done eating, head out of the food court and enjoy the rest of the market. It's also a great place to shop for souvenirs or gifts.
